MARRIED LAST WEEK

MRS. HARRY ANTHONY HERBERT, FORMERLY MISS BLANCH ROCCA.

SOCIETY.

how to Washington society at the White House Monday evening.

A pretty wedding took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Immanuel Baptist Church, when Miss Marion Lucile

MISS MARION LUCILE HINES.

Hines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H.
Hines, was married to Mr. Charles Albert Johnson.

The Rev. Herman Spencer Pinkham performed the ceremony on the flower-decked platform. The bride was escorted by her father and wore a gown of white marquise over white silk, trimmed with princess lace. She wore a large white straw picture hat, trimmed with white ribbon and a veil of white tulle.

Miss Margaret Goff of Chevy Chase has gone to Lexington, Ky., where she is one of a house party which is being entertained by Misses Carolyn and Anna Chandler Goff.

Miss Marie Funstall is having a charming visit to friends in Napa, California, where she went to be one of the bride party in the wedding of Miss Kirkpatrick and Mr. Buchanan Lanier Peoples.

Mr. and Mrs. Marsh have as their house guest for the summer Mrs. Marsh's father, Dr. Hy Robinson of Jacksonville, Fla., and Mrs. Marsh's mother, Mrs. W. H. Robinson attended the silver wedding at the White House.

The engagement is announced of Dr.
Carden Frederick Warner of Washington and Miss Eliza Mitchell of Nashville, Tenn., which takes place next Thursday at the home of the bride's cousin, Mrs. Burnett Norton, in Rome, Ga., on the morning of Wednesday, July 26.

A wedding of great interest to Washington and Georgetown will be that of Miss Louise Bleight of Fredericksburg, Va., and the Rev. Mr. Elmer of Baltimore, which takes place next Thursday evening at Trinity Episcopal Church, Fredericksburg.

Miss Bleight, who is the daughter of Mr. John Bleight, will have as her maid of honor her sister, Miss Mary Bleight, and her bridesmaids will be Misses Blinn of Baltimore, Miss Beale of Fredericksburg, and Miss Georgia Bleight of Prince William county.

A reception of the bride and groom will immediately follow the ceremony.
Miss Bleight, who is particularly popular, will wear a semi-empire gown of soft white satin, and the beautiful old lace veil which she will wear is an heirloom, and is over 20 years old, being worn by many former brides in her family.

Capt. John Rodolph Slattery, U. S. A., Engineer Corps, and Mrs. Slattery and their little son, Louis Rodolph, will leave shortly for Wilmington, N. C., where Capt. Slattery has been ordered for duty.
In the autumn Mrs. Slattery will have as her guest her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Watson of Wilmington.

Miss Mamie Craig, who has been visiting friends in Atlantic City, has returned to her home on Dunbar avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Willoughby Anderson of New York, formerly of Georgetown, will arrive in a few days to attend the marriage of Mr. Anderson's sister, Miss Villette Anderson, which takes place this week. Later in the summer Mrs. Anderson will be the guest of her sister, Mrs.
Arthur Gordon Lewis, at her cottage at Cape Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. Americus Wheedon, who have been the guests for several weeks of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Bonnie, in Louisville, Ky., are now in Jeffersonville, Ind., where they are visiting Mrs. Wheedon's brother, Mr. Louis Girdler.

Burling is a pliant beauty of the Spanish type and is related to many of the old California families. Ensign George is a son of Capt. H. C. Gearing, U.
S. N., now at the Naval Academy at Annapolis, and his family is prominent in naval affairs. Ensign Gearing is attached to the U. S. S. Lawrence of the torpedo fleet. There are no definite plans for the wedding, which will take place probably later in the season in Coronado.

Gen. Tasker Bliss, Mrs. Bliss and Miss Eleanor Bliss, who have been stationed in California, will leave for New York soon for this city, where they will remain a year or more.

Mrs. Chamberlain, wife of the senator, with her son and daughter, left Washington the middle of the week for Portland, Ore., where they were expected yesterday. On the way they stopped off at Jackson, Mich., where they were joined by Mrs. Chamberlain's daughter, Mrs. John Blair.
